

Gordie Johnson visits British Columbia

"Last summer my family and I visited British Columbia and traveled to the west coast of Vancouver Island. I was amazed by the diversity and colors of the underwater world we saw especially colorful anemones, fish and sea stars. My kids still talk about this trip and we can't wait to get back to BC again.
BC diving rocks! "

